Howard University College of Nursing and Allied Health Sciences, one of 13 colleges and schools in an institution that values interdisciplinary research, education, and clinical practice, seeks a qualified candidate for the Chairperson of the Graduate Nursing Program.

Qualifications:
- Doctoral degree in Nursing or Education preferred
- Certified as an Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN) required
- Experience teaching in higher education (preferably at the graduate level), conducting research, and/or an established track record of clinical practice in a specialty area as an Advanced Practice Nurse for a minimum of two (2) years
- Eligible for licensure as an APRN in the District of Columbia
- Online education experience is a plus

Responsibilities:
- Provide leadership in developing and implementing operational action plans to meet the strategic goals and objectives of the University, College, and Division of Nursing
- Maintain accreditation standards for the Division
- Increase collaborations, linkages, and partnerships between community and other University departments
- Implement an efficient advisement system by faculty to foster students’ retention and progression
- Maintain current knowledge of laws, regulations, rules and policies governing education that are issued by local, federal, and state accrediting agencies
- Provide leadership for faculty in applying for extramural research funding
- Design and implement didactic course content
- Provide content expertise through knowledge from current clinical practice

Application Deadline: Open until position is filled.

To apply: Please send a letter of interest and curriculum vitae to:

Dr. Tammi L. Damas
Associate Dean, Division of Nursing
College of Nursing and Allied Health Sciences
Howard University
516 Bryant Street, NW
Washington, DC 20059
Email: tammi.damas@howard.edu